WE WELCOME Saoirse Cartman to our Parish Community following her Baptism last Sunday.

FR DAVID'S GOSPEL REFLECTION: The episode narrated in Luke 10 takes place at the house of Martha and Mary. While enjoying their hospitality, Jesus takes the opportunity to continue his teaching ministry. Mary joins in the session, while her sister Martha attends to the needs of their guests. The inclusion of woman in such a session would have been unusual in first-century Palestinian society. This kind of religious discourse was generally limited to men in Jesus's time. In patriarchal societies, there was (and is) a strict division of labour along gender lines. There is "women's work" and "men's work." In today's text Martha dutifully performs "women's work" by serving her guests and seeing to the practical aspects of hospitality. Meanwhile, Martha becomes annoyed that Mary fails to help her because she is with the men listening to Jesus. Instead of directing Mary to help Martha, Jesus admonishes Martha for being overly concerned with household matters and suggests that Mary has chosen "the better part." Jesus's willingness to include women in his teaching activity provides an important challenge to our church and society today.

ADORATION is every Wednesday 7pm-8pm at St Catherine's.
